

Aging Resource Center of Milwaukee County

Prescription Assistance Program Information for Milwaukee County residents who are age 60 or older

The following programs offer financial assistance and/or information on the cost of prescription medications. Most of these organizations work with the drug companies on the patients behalf and may charge a small fee for this service.

Extra help with prescription drug costs

You must be enrolled in a Medicare prescription drug plan.

www.ssa.gov/prescriptionhelp 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778)

Needy Meds

Information resource to help people who can't afford to pay for their medications.

www.needymeds.org , no telephone helpline

Partnership for Prescription Assistance

Provides assistance for low-income, uninsured patients to get free or nearly free prescription medicines through existing patient-assistance programs.

www.pparx.org , 1-888-477-2669

www.helpingpatients.org

Patient Advocate Foundation—Co-Pay Relief

Helps with co-pay costs for patients with insurance. Limited to specific diseases.

www.copays.org , 1-866-512-3861

Rx Assist

Provides a comprehensive listing of pharmaceutical company patient-assistance programs.

www.rxassist.org , 1-401-729-3284

Rx Help

A prescription assistance company that helps qualified patients access and remain in a pharmaceutical prescription-assistance program.

www.rxhelpu.c4om , 1-866-960-9497

Rx Hope

A Web-based assistance program to help patients' access pharmaceutical prescription assistance programs.

www.rxhope.com , no telephone helpline

Rx Outreach

A low-cost, mail-order prescription drug program for low-income families.

www.rxoutreach.com , 1-800-769-1234

LINET - Limited Income Newly Eligible Transition Program

Provides immediate medication access for Medicare beneficiaries with Extra Help (also known as the Low-income Subsidy or LIS) not yet enrolled in a Part D plan or a Medicare Advantage (Part C) plan with prescription drug coverage.

www.cms.gov/Medicare/Eligibility-and-Enrollment/LowIncSubMedicarePresCov/MedicareLimitedIncomeNET.html

No telephone helpline

SeniorCare Prescription Drug Assistance Program

Wisconsin residents who are 65 or older who meet one of the four levels of program participation are eligible for the SeniorCare program.

www.dhs.wisconsin.gov/seniorcare , 1- 800-657-2038

Social Development Commission – PARS

PARS provides assistance in obtaining free or low-cost prescription medications from participating pharmaceutical companies to income-eligible clients

www.cr-sdc.org/index/Programs--Services/Support-Services/PARS.htm

414-906-2306

Wisconsin SHIP

Your clinic, pharmacy or doctor's office may be able to help you apply for a PAP.

If you have Medicare, call Wisconsin SHIP at 1-855-677-2783.

www.longtermcare.wi.gov